

REMARKS

The Final Office Action mailed June 10, 2010, has been carefully considered together with the reference cited therein. The amendments and remarks presented herein are believed to be fully responsive to the Office Action. The amendments made herein are fully supported by the Application as originally filed. No new matter has been added. Accordingly, reconsideration of the present Application in view of the above amendments and following remarks is respectfully requested.

Claim Rejections Under 35 USC 102

Claims 1-7 and 9 stand rejected under 35 USC § 102(b) as being anticipated by Dietz et al. (US Patent 5,318,627). This rejection is respectfully overcome.

The Office will kindly note that Applicants have amended independent claim 1 and claim 9, deleting there from reference to an inkjet ink, electrophotographic toner, electrophotographic developer and electric ink. In consequence, independent claim 1 now reads a method of coloring a color filter. As Dietz is entirely silent with respect to color filters, it is respectfully contended that the Dietz reference can not anticipate independent claim 1, as amended, or any claims depending there from.

For all the foregoing reasons, it is respectfully contended that the 35 USC § 102 rejection of claims 1-7 and 9 as being anticipated under the 35 USC § 102(b) by Dietz et al. has been overcome. In consequence, Applicants courteously solicit reconsideration and withdrawal of the rejection.

Claim Rejection Under 35 USC § 103

Claim stands rejected under 35 USC § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dietz et al. (US 5,318,627) in view of Coffey (US PGP 2002/0119314). This rejection is respectfully traversed.

For at least the reason advanced with respect to § 102 rejection, above, the addition of Coffey does not make up for the inadequacies of Dietz et al. As claim 8 is dependent upon independent claim 1, it is respectfully contended, that claim 8 can not be made obvious by any combination of Dietz et al. in view of Coffey. For at least this reason, it is respectfully requested the Office reconsider and withdraw the § 103 rejection.

Attorney's Docket: 2004DE106
Serial No.: 10/591,575
Group: 1795

In view of the forgoing amendments and remarks, the present Application is believed to be in condition for allowance, and reconsideration of it is requested. If the Office disagrees, the Examiner is invited to contact the attorney for Applicants at the telephone number provided below.

Respectfully submitted,
